Nitribitt e.V.

Treffpunkt und Beratungsstelle für Prostituierte

England

Meeting point and counselling center for prostitutes

Our association has been advocating the interests of those, who carry out sex work freely and voluntarily since 1987. Nitribitt e.V. supports, promotes and organizes activities against the discrimination of sex workers.

We offer advice to:

female, male, trans and diverse sex workers their relatives and friends people professionally dealing with prostitution / sex workers institutions and projects

interested members of the public and media

...

Our advice is anonymous and free of charge

Our services include:

exit counselling and professional re-orientation support during appointments with authorities assistance with questions about health insurance, taxes, debts conflict guidance (partner, family, experience of violence ...)

outreach activities / street work advice on prostitution law (ProstSchG) rights and duties in prostitution prostitution and health public relations / political work

Every 1st Tuesday of each month „Open Meeting Point“ for current and former sex workers and interested persons in our office from 11am to 1pm.
